

Assembling the Last Judgement Window

Image from: Cathedral Church of St Philip, Birmingham

The photograph shows the Last Judgement window being assembled at William Morris and Co., 8 Red Lion Square, London. Burne-Jones prepared the sketch for the design in 1889, but the window was not installed at St Philip's until 1897.