

The Mill Manager's House, Cromford, Derbyshire

This substantial three-storey building provided the home for the mill manager. It was built immediately opposite Arkwright's mills. To the right is a structure, which became the coach house and stables for the manager's house. It also contains the probable remains of one of the first cottages built by Arkwright in 1771. Both are grade I listed buildings.