

The North East Prospect of Bolsover Castle in Derby

Source: Samuel & Nathaniel Buck, Views of Ruins of Castles & Abbeys in England, Part 2, 1726-1739 (nd), Arts, Languages and Literature, Birmingham Central Library.

Text: Taken from the original source

To the Rt. Hon^{ble}. EDWARD Earl of Oxford and Mortimer & Baron Harley of Wigmore: Owner of this Estate:

This Prospect is Humbly Inscribed by,

My Lord: Ye Lordship's most Obed^t. & Oblig^d. Serv^{ts}. Sam^l. & Nath^l. Buck

This Castle stands upon a lofty Hill in Scarsdale near Chesterfield, and antiently belonged to the Hastings Lord of Abergavenny, by exchange with K. Hen 3^d. and from them it came to the Cavandishes & Hollis; Dukes of Newcastle; and by Female right to the present Owner, the Earl of Oxford.

S. B. delin. N.B. Sculp. 1727