

View of the Westminster Life and British Fire Insurance Offices, Strand, London, with a List of the Directors. J. Gottwaltz, Birmingham Agent

This engraving portrays a London company which is represented in Birmingham by a local agent, J Gottwaltz. Classical motifs dominate, including images of strength: a lion, justice: a pair of scales, an anchor: stability, and wealth: a cornucopia. Outside of the offices a fire engine, driven by two horses, turns a corner.
